

Choose one image resource from the activity, assume the role of a newspaper reporter, and write a short article (250-300 words) about the image. Be sure to include:

- A headline
- Historical backdrop or context
- Descriptions of people and their surroundings in the image
- An analysis of what's taking place
- What the impact might be on the community or country